For more than 150 years, Huron at Western has delivered a distinctive university experience. Our Liberal Arts University offers elite, yet accessible education where personalized learning experiences position students for professional success, while also developing their character. Each student at Huron has access to research opportunities, community-based learning and paid internships with top employers. Huron students can also take courses and access opportunities from any Western campus.

Huron's EnRoute Program helps advanced students prepare for university study by combining English studies with academic courses.

Students enrolled in this program study 17 hours per week of English combined with taking 2.0 approved university credits. Students will have full access to all services and facilities offered at Huron and Western University, along with individualized attention both in and out of the classroom.

Successful completion of this eight-month program will gain students direct entry into full-time studies in arts, business and social sciences at Huron.
